

PRIVACY POLICY

Scope of Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy provides an overview of the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class, including energy companies who produce gas, oil, jobs and pay taxes (hereafter referred to as the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class) practices regarding the online collection, use, sharing, and protection of personally identifiable information. The Policy only covers the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class practices and does not cover any subsidiary, affiliate, or third party privacy practices.

Cookies/Information Placed on Your Computer

As you visit the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class site, certain recognition data files may be attached to your hard drive. These files are called “cookies” and are used by us to customize your visit to the site and recognize your browser as a previous visitor. Cookies can be erased or blocked from your computer through your web browser. The Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class may also collect domain names and gather information such as number of visits, the pages visited, and the average time spent on each page to track traffic patterns throughout the site. This information allows the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class to improve the overall content of the site and increase user satisfaction.

Online Tracking/Do not Track

While you are able to control the use of cookies through your web browser as described in the “Cookies/Information Placed on Your Computer” section above, some web browsers may also give you the ability to enable a “Do Not Track” (DNT) signal, which requests that a website/web application stop tracking your activity. The Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class does not process or respond to DNT signals.

Information from Children

The Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class does not direct its website toward children. The Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class does not seek to collect, use, sell, share, or distribute personal information from or about persons under the age of 18.

Effective Date and Updates

This Privacy Policy is effective as of January 1, 2020. The Privacy Policy is subject to change by the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class at any time. Please check our Privacy Policy regularly for updates.

Security Safeguards

The Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class safeguards personally identifiable information from unauthorized or illegal access, modification, use, or destruction by storing personally identifiable information in an encrypted format.

Identity Theft and Scams

Unfortunately, identity theft and other financial scams are prevalent. It is unlikely that the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class or any of its subsidiaries or agents would solicit you for personal financial information. If you suspect that an email, phone call or letter asking you for personal information, money or temporary employment may be fraudulent and the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class name is used in connection with that solicitation, or if you believe that your personal information has been compromised by the Coalition to Restore California's Middle Class please contact us immediately.
